14 The Maltings

Rothbury, Morpeth, Northumberland NE65 7TG

Centrally located in the heart of the picturesque market town of Rothbury in Northumberland, this beautifully presented property has been a successful holiday let and main residence, but is now available to buy with no chain. As well as buyers looking for an investment or a bolthole in rural Northumberland, this three bedroom property is sure to appeal to house-hunters in search of a home close to shops and facilities, whilst being able to enjoy having the countryside on the doorstep. Unlike some older terraced properties in Rothbury, this house has its own drive and a private paved courtyard style garden, so you don't have to rely on public space to sit out in the sun or find on-street parking. Being an end link, there is space to the side of the house and a useful area for a storage shed. The land adjacent to the house on the other side of the stone wall boundary is open allotments, and offers a view down towards the river. The lounge at the rear spans the full width of the property and enjoys a sunny southerly aspect with patio doors to the garden, whilst the kitchen at the front has space for a table and chairs and an external door with access to the side of the house. Other features include a downstairs toilet, contemporary shower room, double glazing and gas central heating with radiators. The Maltings is a small development of stone houses and bungalows that offer modern homes that are in keeping with the aesthetics of this delightful rural market town.
