Location

Rothbury is known locally as the Capital of Coquetdale and is built on a sandstone hillside. It offers an excellent range of amenities including shops, bars, restaurants, art galleries and much more. The location makes it makes a convenient base for fishing, walking and cycling into the Northumberland National Park and Simonside. Rothbury lies near the centre of rural Northumberland, 12 miles from Alnwick, 15 miles from Morpeth and 29 miles from Newcastle upon Tyne. As such it has been a local centre since the 13th century and at various times had a castle, a market and magistrate's court. Nearby Cragside House and Gardens, home to Lord Armstrong is perhaps the most famous attraction in the area.

Description

We are delighted to offer to the market this three storey detached property that formerly traded as The Railway Hotel. The property still retains mainly fixtures and fittings and with a little investment could be easily reopened as a bar/hotel/restaurant, although other uses may be acceptable subject to planning permission. The property also comes with a garden plot behind the property.
