The entrance door opens into a welcoming hallway with stairs to the first floor and the inviting lounge with archway though to the dining room features a bay window that floods the room with natural light. The central fireplace creates a cosy feature and the dining room has ample space for a table and chairs. The kitchen has been extended and L-shaped with wall and base units and space for appliances. The side door leads to the wide pathway to the side of the property and into the rear garden. From the landing, the bedrooms are all generous and the bathroom is bright and colourful. From the rear bedroom window there are views to the grassy area with a walk accessing the harbour. Outside the garden to the front is bordered by a wall and a pathway leads to the entrance door and to the gated side pathway. The mature garden to the rear is mainly lawn with flowering plants and shrubs and a hardstanding is a lovely outdoor space to sit and enjoy the warmer months of the year. The garden shed provides excellent garden storage and the garden is enclosed by timber fencing.

Amble is a popular and sought after coastal town with many shopping and leisure amenities. There is a regular bus service visiting the larger towns of Alnwick and Morpeth with connections as far afield as Newcastle and Berwick and the local train station in Alnmouth has a fast service to Edinburgh, Newcastle and beyond.

Just a short walk will bring you to the working harbour with retail pods, Little Shore Beach and Pier. Seasonal boat trips across to Coquet Island gives the opportunity of sightings on grey seals, roseate terns and puffins along with dolphins on a lucky day and the Sunday market is well worth a visit.

Travelling South along the coastal road in the village of Hadston is Druridge Bay Country Park with a glorious wide sandy bay, watersports lake and countryside walks.

Benefitting from gas central heating and uPVC double glazing, George Street will suit many types of buyers from young families to mature couples and the retired who are looking for a property in a desirable location on the doorstep of all the amenities.
