Magdalene Fields

Warkworth NE65 0UF

The accommodation is bright and airy with excellent sized living space on one level and would be an ideal purchase for the mature or retired couple looking for a property conveniently placed just a short walk from the village centre. Briefly comprising, entrance door to the lobby with door to the welcoming entrance hall. There is a spacious lounge situated to the front of the property and a well-appointed and generous dining kitchen with some appliances which opens up to the superb garden room overlooking the rear garden with French doors leading onto the patio. This additional living space could easily serve as a sitting and dining room, ideal for entertaining.

Each of the three bedrooms are of a good size, the main bedroom benefitting from an en-suite shower room and there is also a main shower room.

Outside, the driveway provides off road parking and accesses the garage. The front lawn is bordered by hedging giving the property a good deal of privacy. Side pathways lead to the generous rear garden which is mainly lawned with mature trees, shrubs and raised borders. The extensive paved patio offers an excellent outdoor space to relax and enjoy the warmer months of the year. A courtesy door gives access to the double garage and there is a shed for storage.

Warkworth is a pretty coastal village with a 13th century Castle and Hermitage and riverside walks along the Coquet. There are boutique shops, cafes and restaurants around the town square and the village boasts a real community spirit with many activities taking place and spectacular events at the Castle. The village has its own wide sandy beach along Northumberland's glorious coastline.

The traditional coastal town of Amble is just on the doorstep with a working harbour and Amble Harbour Village with retail pods, cafes and fish restaurants together with Little Shore Beach and Pier where dolphins are often spotted. There are seasonal boat trips across to Coquet Island where grey seals, puffins and roseate terns can be spotted. The larger towns of Alnwick and Morpeth are close to hand with a wide range of shopping and leisure amenities and the local bus service visits these towns with connecting public transport links further afield. The train station in Alnmouth has regular services to Newcastle, Edinburgh and beyond. The A1 with stretches from the north and south of the county with motorway connections throughout the country.

This property is sold with no upward chain and is a perfect choice for anyone local or moving into the area looking for a bungalow in a charming location rich in history combining the best in village living with excellent access to the surrounding towns.
