Location

The business occupies a prominent position on the high street through Wooler. Wooler is an excellent base for a holiday offering a wide range of accommodation from hotels to camping sites. Within a short car journey you can be in the magnificent heritage coast line of North Northumberland with spectacular scenery from Bamburgh Castle and Holy Island. Alnwick with its historic castle and the famous Alnwick Gardens lies a few miles south while the Scottish borders are within easy travelling distance from Wooler on uncluttered country roads. A new visitor experience of the Ad Gefrin Anglo-Saxon site will open in Wooler in spring 2023, following a £10.4m investment and expected to attract an additional 50,000 + visitors to the area each year. The visitor experience will also include a bistro bar, gift shop and the Ad Gefrin whisky distillery, home to the first Northumbrian English single malt whisky, and the county's first legal whisky distillery in 200 years.
