From the entrance lobby, the welcoming hallway leads to the living space. The lounge situated to the rear opens into the conservatory with a French door to the garden and patio area. The kitchen is well appointed and accesses the utility room. The main bedroom has two double built in wardrobes and benefits from an en-suite shower room plus there are two further bedrooms and a bathroom. Outside the driveway provides off road parking and accesses the garage and a side pathway leads to the rear garden which is mainly lawn with a raised decking area to sit and enjoy the warmer months of the year. This is a lovely mature garden full of plants and shrubs and a gate to the rear leads to the fields.

Acklington has become a very popular place to live for many types of buyers from the mature couples and retirees to the families wanting their perfect home in a quieter and rural location. There are plenty of shops, cafes and restaurants in the traditional harbour town of Amble and for high street shops and a wider choice the larger towns of Alnwick and Morpeth are just a short drive away.

The village is served by local transport links and the train stations in Alnmouth and Morpeth have services to Edinburgh, Newcastle and beyond. Druridge Bay Country Park is on the doorstep with a glorious wide sandy bay and a watersports lake whilst there are many walks in and around the village. The bungalow is also conveniently placed for the main A1 linking the north and south of the county with connections to the motorway networks throughout the country.
