PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

This well-appointed detached bungalow occupying a spacious private corner plot in the desirable St Aidan's Park development. Sweeping driveway and double garage as well as open landscaped gardens really make this a gem of a property. The bungalow is fitted throughout with modern attractive features and clean stylish flooring. The current owners have spent a lot of time creating a modern space to live in with comfort and style.

The property is entered via the front door from the driveway into the central hallway which gives access to all front elevation rooms as well as deep double cloaks cupboard and archway through to the rear hallway. The guest WC cloakroom is off the entrance hallway and fitted with attractive timber effect flooring, modern white suite, attractive splash-back tiling and slimline frosted window.

The lounge is a spacious open plan room with ample dining space as well room for lounging around the log burner which is placed within a feature brick fireplace with deep oak mantle. A wide bay window invites plenty of natural light into the south facing elevation, adorned with window seat. The dining area, again, benefits from a wide south facing window inviting in plenty of light.

The kitchen is the hub of the house and is complimented by the adjacent sun room which has open archway through, creating a dining kitchen with lovely views over the gardens and direct access to the patio area for entertaining in the summer months. For keeping warm in the colder months, the sun room offers under floor heating. The kitchen is very well fitted with shaker style base and wall units, built-in wine rack, as well as integrated appliances and contrasting worktops. Again, this room enjoys a wide south facing windows, keeping the room well-lit with natural light.

All three bedrooms are found off the rear hallway and are spacious double rooms. The main bedroom benefits from fitted storage and the added advantage of having existing plumbing to install an en-suite or vanity unit. The family bathroom is beautifully finished with modern white suite and comprises both bath and separate shower cubicle. The walls are tiled and the floor is finished with a modern tile effect finish.

Externally, the property is approached along a sweeping driveway with beech hedges adorning both sides, offering a high degree of privacy. The gravelled driveway offers parking for several cars as well as spacious double garage.

The gardens extend around the property and offer private areas of patio, seating, lawn, rockery with pond and the terrace to the rear.

This property is a superb opportunity for someone to purchase a secluded property within easy reach of amenities, schools and local shopping. Hexham town is less than 4 miles away offering full amenities including hospital, supermarkets, schooling for all ages, leisure centre with swimming pool and athletics centre, restaurants, public houses, town centre shopping as well as extensive train and bus services.
