Location

Amble known as 'The Friendliest Port' is a popular North East waterfront town which hugs the River Coquet Estuary at the southern gateway to the Northumberland Coast Area of Outstanding natural beauty. With a sizeable local community enjoying all year-round tourism.

Premises Description

The business operates from the ground floor of an attractive, two-storey mid-terrace property featuring a traditional pitched slate roof. The internal layout accommodates approximately 20 covers in a well-maintained dining area. The serving counter is integrated with the open-plan kitchen, providing an efficient operational flow. To the rear of the kitchen, there is a WC and a designated storage area. Externally, the property benefits from an enclosed rear yard.

Business description

This presents an exceptional opportunity to acquire a high-quality, fully licensed café/bar located in the vibrant centre of Amble—a popular and thriving coastal town.

The business offers a diverse and appealing menu, including loaded flatbreads, stone-baked pizzas, gourmet burgers, spice bowls, chicken tikka, freshly brewed coffee, artisan ice cream, milkshakes, beers, cocktails, and more.

Positioned on a prominent route leading directly to the harbour, the premises benefit from excellent visibility and substantial footfall. The business enjoys consistent trade throughout the week, driven by local commercial activity, which is further enhanced by increased visitor numbers during weekends, public holidays, and the busy summer tourist season.
