Presenting this attractive two-bedroom semi-detached house, available for sale in the rural and picturesque setting of Scots Gap, Morpeth. Nestled in a charming location with access to a variety of walking routes and surrounded by expansive green spaces, this property offers peaceful countryside living while remaining conveniently accessible.

The home features a bright reception room enhanced by a welcoming fireplace and direct access to the sizeable garden. The kitchen benefits from an abundance of natural light, making it a pleasant and functional space for daily life with an open plan area perfect for dining.

Upstairs, the accommodation comprises two bedrooms and a well-appointed bathroom, which includes both a bath and a separate shower, offering versatile options for comfort and convenience.

An EPC rating of D and a council tax band C ensure practical and manageable running costs. The property's generous garden to the rear is ideal for outdoor dining, gardening, or simply enjoying the tranquil surroundings. Notably, with the size of the garden this house offers significant potential to extend, appealing to those wishing to further enhance the living space and add value over time.

A key advantage is the absence of an upper chain, streamlining the purchasing process for prospective buyers seeking a swift and hassle-free transaction. This delightful home encapsulates rural charm combined with excellent potential, making it a superb opportunity for those aspiring to enjoy a countryside lifestyle in Northumberland. Early viewings are highly recommended.
