

Croft Way Belford

Situated in a desirable position occupying a superb corner plot in a modern development within the old coaching village of Belford in Northumberland, this spacious detached bungalow is located towards the entrance to the estate on the first phase, near Belford Medical Practice and the High Street.

For those buyers that are downsizing from a house, they will find that the lounge and dining kitchen are both spacious rooms, with space for a sizeable table and chairs in the kitchen. In addition to the three bedrooms, there is substantial attic space that could be officially converted into two bedrooms or a very larger master suite. Accessed from the hall with a pull-down ladder, the attic space currently has flooring, windows, and professionally plaster-boarded walls and ceiling, making it a superb storage area.

The gardens at the front and rear are mostly laid to lawn, and the private rear west facing garden makes the most of its sunny aspect. A detached garage and drive are alongside to the left of the bungalow.

With a market square and medieval cross at its centre, the ancient village of Belford is a popular place for buyers searching for a home in a characterful Northumberland Village. Local residents enjoy the proximity to the delights of the coastline with its sandy beaches and imposing castles, as well as the countryside further inland in the National Park. The co-op store, medical group, village gym and other amenities in the village make this location an ideal place for a main residence, with easy access to the A1
