21 Lambs Terrace, Amble NE65 0LP

Entering through the useful lobby area, the lounge is an excellent size with an original stone surround fireplace with a wood burning stove which gives a cosy focal point to the room. There is ample space for living room furniture as well as a dining table for everyday eating and entertaining. Stairs lead to the first floor landing and there is an attractive luxury vinyl floor covering which continues into the fitted kitchen. The galley kitchen offers an excellent range of wall and base units with contrasting worktops and a fitted electric oven, hob and extractor along with space for further appliances. From the bright and airy landing there are two double bedrooms, the main is of an excellent size and the bathroom is well appointed with a modern suite and shower over the bath. Outside, the lawn garden to the front is bordered by a stone wall and timber fencing providing a lovely space to sit and enjoy the warmer months of the year. The cobbled lane to the rear has a useful storage outbuilding and can provide further seating.

Amble has become increasingly popular with many buyers choosing this town to live due to its many shops, cafes and restaurants. There is a good supply of local shops as well as larger supermarkets and the Sunday market at the harbour is well worth a visit. The working harbour at Amble Harbour Village has wooden retail pods, coffee shops and fish restaurants and Little Shore Beach is great for children. A walk along the Pier and breakwater has fabulous views of the sea and coastline and boat trips from the harbour visit Coquet Island where puffins, grey seals and a variety of sea birds can be spotted. There are schools for children of all ages and the local bus service is regular visiting Alnwick, Morpeth and beyond. The train station in Alnmouth provides services to Newcastle, Edinburgh with connections throughout the country.

If you are looking for a pretty coastal stone terrace, this property should be on your list to view.
