Stannington itself is a quaint little village, with very easy access to the bustling town centre of Morpeth, where you will find an array of local bars, restaurants, shopping and river walks to choose from. With Cramlington being only a 10-minute drive away and Newcastle City Centre a 15-minute drive away, the village of Stannington is perfectly situated for commuters. The property briefly comprises:

On the lower floor, the entrance porch leads into a generous hallway with oak hardwood flooring extending into the kitchen diner and the lounge. The lounge is a substantial size and has a built-in wall-to-wall bookcase. It benefits further from magnificent views over the countryside and garden, which can be accessed via the double patio doors. In addition, the lounge further benefits from a working open fire, which is the focal point of the room and will be cosy on winter nights. The open-plan kitchen diner is a great space for families, with ample space for your dining table and chairs. The high-spec kitchen has a range of gloss wall and base units, offering an abundance of storage and comes with a built-in breakfast bar. Appliances include a dishwasher and a double oven. The kitchen leads seamlessly into the impressive sunroom located to the rear of the property, and offering the most spectacular views of the countryside. The sunroom is really one of a kind, fitted with fantastic floor-to-ceiling windows and leading directly onto a south-west facing hardwood decked area, which is the perfect place to sit in the summer with a glass of wine to watch the sun go down. You further benefit from a separate utility room, with space for a washing machine and a tumble dryer. The utility room has its own shower and offers direct access to the garage and to the garden. The kitchen, sunroom and utility room all benefit from underfloor heating, each with its own separate zone. There is also a handy cloakroom and downstairs W.C.

On the upper floor of the accommodation, there are four good sized bedrooms, three doubles and one single. All offering excellent storage and have been carpeted throughout and finished with a light décor. You further benefit from a separate office space, which also offers views of the vast countryside. The main family bathroom has been fitted with W.C, hand basin, bath tub and separate shower.

Externally, the property has a private driveway which can accommodate at least two cars and a one and a half car garage. To the rear there is a stunning mature garden, with established beech hedges. The garden will suit someone who enjoys outdoor living. There is a generously sized garden shed built into the corner of the plot ideal for garden machinery and general storage.

The property benefits further from access to an adjacent shared grass common field exclusively for residents of The Limes, accessed at the bottom of the garden through a small gate.

Early viewings are highly recommended to appreciate the space on offer.
