PROPERTY DESCRIPTION:

The property provides one generous reception room with large windows and an open fire set within a fireplace. The kitchen features modern units, a walk-in pantry and direct access to the rear yard, which has low-maintenance gardens designed for ease of upkeep. Upstairs, there are two double bedrooms; the main bedroom includes a walk-in closet. The bathroom offers a feature bathtub and a heated towel rail. A loft room provides additional flexible space for storage or hobbies.

The location places residents within easy reach of local shops, services and schools, as well as established walking and cycling routes and nearby green spaces for outdoor recreation. Regular bus services run towards Newcastle city centre, providing connections to major employers, shopping and leisure facilities. Central Station in Newcastle offers mainline rail services to destinations including Edinburgh, York and London, with journey times to London from around three hours.

Local parks and play areas are accessible on foot or by a short drive, and the wider Newcastle area offers a range of cafés, restaurants and community facilities. This terraced house for sale presents a practical layout, with features such as plantation shutters in most rooms and low-maintenance gardens that may appeal to families and buyers seeking a well-arranged home in a convenient part of Newcastle upon Tyne.
