Location

The property is prominently located on East Parade, Whitley Bay, occupying a prime seafront position with uninterrupted views over the North Sea. Situated in one of the town's most desirable coastal stretches, the premises benefit from high visibility and strong footfall, particularly during peak tourist seasons.

East Parade forms part of the main coastal route linking Tynemouth and Blyth and lies at the heart of Whitley Bay's thriving hospitality and leisure circuit. The immediate vicinity includes a mix of well-established restaurants, cafés, and hotels.

This location also benefits from significant public investment and regeneration in recent years, enhancing its appeal to both residents and visitors. With excellent access to public transport and ample parking nearby, the unit offers a rare opportunity to establish a variety of businesses in a bustling, high-demand coastal setting.

Description

The available accommodation comprises a ground floor retail unit, forming part of a three-storey mid-terraced property. The upper floors have recently been converted to high-quality short-term holiday lets (Airbnb use), complementing the commercial use at street level.

The unit is presented in shell condition, offering a blank canvas for incoming operators to undertake their own bespoke fit-out. No fixtures or fittings are included, in the let.

To the front of the property, there are two dedicated parking spaces, which may also present an opportunity for outdoor seating, subject to securing the appropriate licence from North Tyneside Council. Additionally, a rear service access provides potential for delivery operations if required.

The unit cannot be used for any food related business.
