Location

The property is prominently located on King Street, the prime pedestrianised retail thoroughfare in South Shields town centre. King Street benefits from strong footfall throughout the day, serving as the main shopping destination for the town and wider catchment area. The unit is situated amongst a vibrant mix of national and local operators including Barclays Bank, Cardfactory, JD Sports, Santander, EE, Clintons and Boots, together with many other well-established high street retailers, cafés, and service providers.

This strong tenant mix ensures consistent levels of pedestrian traffic and makes King Street a highly desirable trading location. Excellent transport links serve the area, with South Shields Metro Interchange and local bus services within easy walking distance, as well as ample town centre car parking provisions. The area is being transformed by the relocation of South Tyneside College. The redevelopment will bring thousands of students and staff into the town centre, creating a vibrant atmosphere and excellent opportunities for businesses.
