31 George Street, Amble, NE65 0DW

Available with no onward chain, this attractive stone-built mid-terraced home is ideally positioned within the vibrant coastal town of Amble, just a short distance from the popular Amble Marina.

Full of character and charm, the property boasts a wealth of period features including high ceilings, original plaster cornices, an impressive staircase and a spacious landing, all combining to create a home of warmth and distinction.

The ground floor offers two generous reception rooms with separate entrances, but these have been opened up and now also connect by a square archway that provides a flowing, open-plan feel while retaining the option to separate the spaces if desired – ideal for both modern living and more formal entertaining. The kitchen has been updated in a contemporary style, offering a practical and stylish workspace.

Upstairs, the accommodation comprises two sizeable double bedrooms and a spacious single bedroom, providing flexible living arrangements for families, guests or home working. The modern bathroom is well-appointed, featuring both a double shower cubicle and a separate bath.

Externally, there is an enclosed rear yard offering low-maintenance outdoor space.

Amble has a range of local amenities, including independent shops, cafés and restaurants around Queen Street and the harbour area, as well as access to coastal walks and nearby beaches. The property is available with no onward chain.

Public transport links are provided by regular bus services connecting Amble with Morpeth, Alnwick and other Northumberland towns, where onward rail connections are available to Newcastle, Edinburgh and beyond. For drivers, the A1 is accessible via local routes, offering road links to Newcastle upon Tyne and the wider region. Families will find schooling options in Amble, with primary and secondary schools located in and around the town.

A fantastic opportunity to acquire a characterful coastal home in a sought-after location.
