PROPERTY DESCRIPTION:

The property features open plan living with a reception space that includes a log burner set within a central fireplace, a raised dining area and direct access to the south-west facing garden. The garden enjoys open views and makes the most of afternoon and evening light. The kitchen benefits from natural light, dining space and shaker-style units, complementing the open-plan layout. There is also a separate utility room in the hallway.

There are two double bedrooms. The master bedroom overlooks the garden, while the second double bedroom includes built-in wardrobes. The bathroom offers a shower over the bath and a heated towel rail.

There is also parking for two.

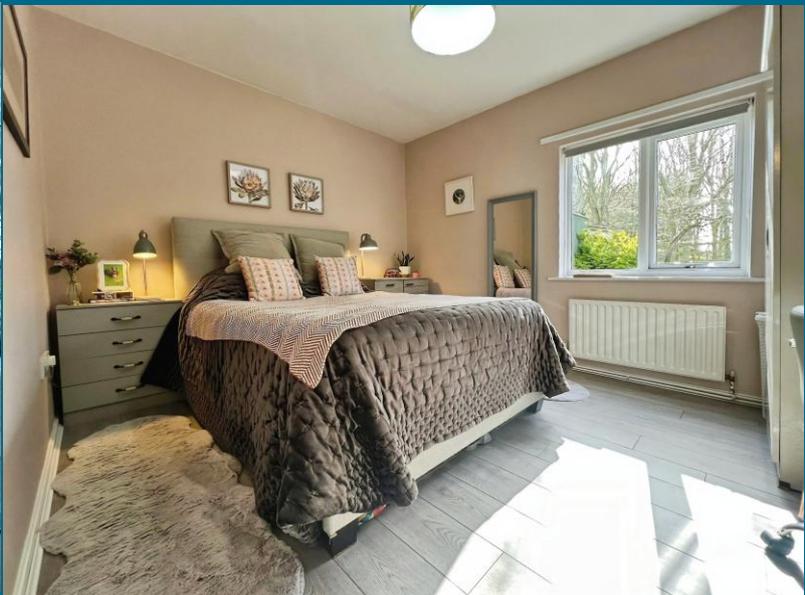

Kirkharle is known for its green spaces and walking routes, with countryside paths and routes easily accessible from the bungalow. Kirkharle Courtyard is within walking distance and features The Running Fox bakery and café, as well as regular park runs at weekends, providing a local hub for leisure and socialising.

For wider amenities, residents can drive to nearby villages and into Newcastle upon Tyne for shopping, services and employment. The A696 offers road connections towards Newcastle and the wider region, including access to Newcastle International Airport. Rail services are available from Newcastle, offering routes to Edinburgh, London and other major cities, with typical journey times to London from around three hours, making longer-distance travel practical while enjoying a rural setting.
