Benefitting from uPVC double glazing and gas central heating, the entrance hall is bright and welcoming with a staircase leading to the first floor accommodation. The lounge is well proportioned with lots of natural light flowing through the window to the front and there is ample space for a variety of furniture layouts. The generous dining kitchen has an excellent range of modern wall and base units with work surfaces and a sink unit with mixer taps and tiled splashbacks. The worktop extends out to provide a breakfast bar for everyday eating although there is space for a dining table if required. There is space for a fridge freezer, a range cooker and an extractor is fitted above. The utility room is located just off the kitchen with space for a washer and dryer and from the inner lobby there is a downstairs w.c. for convenience and door to the rear garden. From the landing to the first floor, the bedrooms are of an excellent size with two doubles, one having built in cupboards and a single third bedroom with a storage cupboard. The shower room is fitted with a walk in shower cubicle with shower unit, vanity wash hand basin and low level w.c.

Outside the garden to the front is bordered by a picket fence with a gated pathway leading to the side entrance door. There are also double gates to the driveway providing off road parking. A side gate leads to the rear garden which is mainly laid to lawn and bordered by timber fencing. Particular mention must be made of its generous size which is ideal for the young and growing family or for anyone who wants to devote a space for growing fruit and vegetables.

Hadston is a popular village just off the coastal road with a variety of local shops, amenities and a doctors surgery. It lies close to the larger traditional harbour town of Amble with a further array of shops, cafes and restaurants. There is a local bus service which visits Morpeth and Alnwick with connections further afield and the coastal road gives access to the road networks to Ashington, Cramlington and the Tyne Tunnel towards the south. The glorious sandy bay of Druridge is within walking distance which also has a watersports lake and countryside walks.
