For any more information regarding the property please contact us today

Occupying a delightful rural position between the nearby villages of Warkworth and Shilbottle, this attractive mid-terraced stone-built former farm cottage is vacant and available for sale with no onward chain.

It enjoys open views across surrounding farmland and offers a wonderful opportunity for buyers seeking a characterful home on the Northumberland coast. It is a great location for proximity to the coastal routes, A1 main road, and the East Coast Railway service at Alnmouth station.

The accommodation offers a spacious living room forming the heart of the property. Featuring an exposed stone chimney breast and impressive inglenook fireplace incorporating a wood-burning stove, the room provides a warm and inviting space for everyday living.

To the rear, a hall leads to the kitchen, which is fitted with a range of units and offers excellent scope for upgrading, allowing a purchaser to create a kitchen tailored to their own tastes and requirements.

Off the rear hall is a useful pantry-style cupboard housing the oil-fired central heating boiler.

On the first floor are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. The two front-facing bedrooms enjoy particularly attractive views over the front garden and across the surrounding countryside.

Externally, the property benefits from a lawned front garden with fenced boundaries and delightful open aspects across neighbouring fields. To the rear is a traditional stone outbuilding providing both a workshop and useful wood store.

The property is ideally situated for those looking to enjoy the benefits of a peaceful rural setting whilst remaining within easy reach of the stunning Northumberland coastline, Warkworth's amenities, and nearby transport links.
