A two-bedroom end terrace offering an excellent opportunity for a purchaser looking to undertake a programme of updating and create a home to their own specification. The property requires refurbishment throughout but offers a well-proportioned layout with a particularly generous living room opening directly onto the enclosed rear outside space, a separate kitchen, two bedrooms both benefiting from fitted wardrobes, and a first-floor bathroom. Externally, there is the considerable advantage of a private driveway providing off-street parking to the front, together with a generously enclosed paved garden/yard to the rear. With good room proportions, useful built-in storage, private parking and outside space already in place, this is a property where the potential is immediately apparent and an ideal opportunity for a buyer looking for a home, they can comprehensively modernise and make their own.
